The Vienna High School Class of 1941 had its 67th class reunion on Saturday, July 26, 2008 at Moreland's Restaurant, south of Vienna near the Gasconade River.

In 1941 there were 44 graduates. In 2008, 17 are still living and eight attended the reunion. Those attending were Louise (Eads) DeHart of Vienna; Naomi (Feeler) Snodgrass and husband, Ellis, of Salem; Buel Leuthen of Dixon; Mildred (Minzes) Parker and daughter, Becky, of Rolla; Norma (Nelson) Fannon and brother, Paul Nelson and wife, Deanna of St. Louis; Wilburn Rowden and wife, Launa, of Jefferson

City; Alma Jean (Wilson) Slaughter of Springfield; and Richard James, Jr. and wife, Shirley and daughter Diana James, who came to take pictures. Also attending were Norman and Berneice James and Les Volmert of Vienna.

Arrangements had been made with Superintendent Richard Spacek to tour the new school and those who did so were amazed and pleased with the new facilities, wishing that some of the opportunities had been there when they were in school and lamenting the loss of the old building where many memories had been made.

Those unable to attend were Delphia (Bell) Carbone of Illinois; Joe Copeland of Vienna; LaVaughn (Cox) Tilton of Florida; Geraldine (Curtis) Webb of California; Lorraine (Hawkins) Doyle of Wentzville; Alma (Messersmith) Warner of Vienna; Edward Ortballs of St. Ann; Clay Picker of Union; and Edwin Schwartz of St. Louis.
