Girls Drop First District Game

Last Tuesday the VHS girls varsity basketball team closed out their season as the 6th seeded Eagles were hammered by 3rd seeded Southern Boone 63-32.

Southern Boone fired out to a 14-6 first quarter advantage and expanded their lead throughout the game.

The varsity girls ended their season with a 13-9 overall record, including a perfect 10-0 mark in the Gasconade Valley Conference.

"We would have liked to have ended our season with a better performance, but we had a ton of turnovers and weren't able to generate any offense," said Coach Byrd. "Overall, we had an excellent season. These players were excellent to work with and they achieved a lot."
