

HORSE JUDGING TEAM - The Vienna High School Horse Judging Team took first place in an area contest in Owensville. The team competed against ten other schools. They were expected to evaluate three classes of horses, one pleasure and two halter and give reasons followed by an area exam. Vienna placed first over Rolla and St. James. Pictured are (L-R) Howard Snodgrass, Brian Auten, James Crider, Crystal Shanks and advisor Dick Marshall. Not pictured was Shannon Dillon.