Jacob Cahill in Duet Acting.

Those receiving first place medals were: Erin Henderson in Prose, Missy Miller in Original Oratory, Rebecca Henderson in Storytelling and Chris Schwartz and Rebecca Henderson in Duet Acting.

Receiving second place medals were Kelley Weidinger in Humorous Interpretation, Erin Henderson in Dramatic Interpretation, Amanda Stratman in Poetry and David Hutchison in Radio.

Third place finishers were Tasha Sandbothe in Dramatic Interpretation, Sarah Henderson in Poetry, Amanda Stratman in Extemporaneous Speaking and Erin Henderson and Jacob Cahill in Duet Acting.

Individual All-Conference awards went to Chris Schwartz and Rebecca Henderson in Duet Acting; Kelly Weidinger in Humorous Interpretation; Missy Miller in Original Oratory; Erin Henderson in Prose; and Rebecca Henderson in Storytelling.

"I am tremendously proud of our hard-working team members," said coach Rexanna Shackelford.

Each school provides judges. Those judges volunteering time from their busy schedules and representing Vienna at this conference meet were Sherry Bingaman, Connie Cahill and Bill Parker. Timekeeper was Natalie Thornton.

Vienna now moves into district competition with its next outing to be held in Camdenton against some very tough high school varsity speech teams in March.
