

DISTRICT SCHOLAR BOWL - The Vienna Scholar Bowl team competed in the District Scholar Bowl competition at Norwood High School on Saturday, April 8. The team did an excellent job, winning two of the three games they played. Pictured are team members (L-R) Jacob Cahill, Chris Schwartze (captain), Jeremy Smith and David Hutchison. The team is coached by Sherry Bingaman. They were accompanied to the meet by Terry Schwartze.

DISTRICT SCHOLAR -

Chris Schwartze made the All-District Team at the Academic Scholar Bowl Tournament held Saturday, April 8 at Norwood High School. Schwartze had the highest average score of all students in the tournament and will receive a medal for this high accomplishment. Over 50 students competed in this year's tournament. Chris is a junior at Maries R-I High School. He is the son of David and Terry Schwartze of Vienna.
