

FFA CONVENTION - Four members of the Vienna FFA Chapter attended the 72nd Annual Missouri FFA Convention in Columbia on April 13-14. Students attended leadership workshops presented by the National FFA officers, a career show with over 80 businesses and organizations attending, and convention sessions that highlighted the importance of leadership and working together. Pictured are (L-R) Jacob Cahill, Dale Wilson, David Conner and Jeremy Smith. Cahill and Smith were the State Delegates from the Vienna FFA Chapter. They attended delegate sessions to vote on constitutional changes both for the State and National FFA Constitutions. Cahill was also one of 194 members selected to the State FFA Chorus, which sang at the third session of the convention. He is now eligible for the National FFA Chorus.
