

Four Selected To All-GVC Baseball Team

Four Vienna High School varsity baseball players were recently selected to the Gasconade Valley Conference All-GVC Team. Fifteen players from the GVC were selected by the conference coaches.

Brad Beckett of Bourbon was named GVC Most Valuable Player.

Vienna won the GVC championship with a conference record of 5-0. This is the first time in nearly 20 years Vienna has won the GVC title in baseball.
