

CAREER DEVELOPMENT EVENTS - The Vienna FFA Chapter competed in the Area XI FFA Contests. Those placing in the contest included (L-R) Jacob Cahill, Heather Smith, John Rollins, Michelle Lanning and Jeremy Smith. Not pictured were Brandon Shanks and Nick Davis.

FFA chapter competes in career development events

The Vienna FFA Chapter competed in the Area XI FFA Contests on Wednesday, March 14. The area includes 26 schools from Vienna, Rolla and Fatima east to St. Louis and the surrounding area. FFA members compete with all sizes of schools from 1A to 5A in athletic standings.

The students placed as follows:

Chapter Books:

Record Books: are scored on the number of entries, the realism of records, and neatness of the books. Beginning Ownership, 4th, Brandon Shanks; Beginning Placement, 4th, Heather Smith; Completed

Ownership, 2nd, Jacob Cahill; Completed Placement, 1st, Jeremy Smith. A first place record book at area automatically means a gold medal at the State FFA Convention in April.

Scrapbook: Chapter scrapbooks are a visual record of the activities and events members in the chapter take part of. Michelle Lanning, John Rollins and Heather Smith, 6th.

Speech Contests:

Creed: Michelle Lanning, 8th.

Extemporaneous: Jacob Cahill, 7th.

Prepared: Heather

Smith, 3rd, Division I, qualifies for districts; John Rollins, 3d, Division II, qualifies for districts; and Jeremy Smith, 6th, Division III.

FFA Knowledge: is a test of knowledge about the FFA and Agricultural Education that the team takes. They must also wear official dress as part of the scoring process. Nick Davis, Michelle Lanning and Heather Smith, 9th place.

FFA members will continue to remain active as District FFA Career Development Events and State FFA Convention are coming in April. Please watch and read our future articles.