

Baseball team finishes best fall season ever

The Vienna High School boys baseball team recently completed their best fall season with an 8-3 record.

This year's squad consisted of seniors Tyler Schwartze, shortstop; Mitchell Wieberg, first base; and Adam Meyer, catcher.

Juniors included Tommy Haller, pitcher/third base; Abe Rowden, catcher; Sam Barnhart, third base/pitcher/outfield; Justin Helton, pitcher/outfield; John Wulff, second base; and Dustin Evans, left field.

Sophomores were Tyler throw line.

"The girls played a very physical game," said head coach

Willoughby, right field; Rocky Clark, pitcher/third base; John Rollins, catcher; and T.C. James, first base.

Freshman included Will Rollins, pitcher; Josh Dawson, shortstop/second base; Nathan Dudenhoeffer, left field; Adam James, right field; and Morgan Schiermeier, center field.

Michelle Otto was the statistician and Ellie Byrd was the scorekeeper.

"I was very pleased this fall," commented Coach Kolzow. "These players are an excellent group to work with and showed a lot of pride. I am looking forward to the spring season."