

Class of 2001 will graduate Sunday

Forty-seven seniors at Maries R-I High School will be receiving their long-awaited diplomas at the graduation ceremony this Sunday, May 13.

The Maries R-I Band will provide music for the processional and recessional, as well as a special song during the ceremony. The senior class choir will be singing "I Will Remember You".

Superintendent Dr. Pamela Sells will welcome everyone to the graduation ceremony, followed by a senior video presentation of the Class of 2001.

Guest speakers will be foreign exchange students Pieter-Willem Lips and Claude Andrist. The salutatorian and valedictorian will give their addresses. Due to finals being taken this week, the top ten students have not been determined.

Juniors Kelly Hollis and Ellie Byrd will assist in the parent recognition, followed by the presentation of the senior class by High School Principal Don Fields.

The Class of 2001 has chosen purple and silver as their class colors and the purple rose as their class flower. Their class song is "Graduation" by

Vitamin C.
