This week Jenny Fick and Amy Hollis have been chosen for the Senior Spotlight.

Jenny Fick, 17, is the daughter of Glenn and Jill Fick of Vienna. She is the left fielder in varsity softball and a guard in varsity basketball.

She is currently in FTA and serves on the yearbook staff. She is employed at Vienna Discount Grocery on the weekends.

Jenny's favorite color is red and her favorite animals are horses because she likes riding them.

She loves sweet and sour chicken and if she could go anywhere in the world it would be "somewhere tropical and sunny".

Her favorite class is advanced biology and her favorite actor is Matt Damon.

"He's hot," Jenny said.

Jenny's hobbies include sports, taking pictures and shopping, especially at Stockroom because "everything is $14.95 and under!"

She enjoys hanging out at Jim's parking lot with all her friends, especially her best friend Amy Hollis.

Jenny would like to attend college at Central Missouri State University in Warrensburg and major in elementary education.

Amy Hollis, 17, is the daughter of Rex and Beth Hollis of Vienna. She is the catcher for the varsity softball team and a guard in varsity basketball.

She is involved in FTA, FBLA and the yearbook staff. Her favorite color is red and her favorite animals are dogs, especially her dog which doesn't have a name at this time.

"I just call the dog IT," Amy said.

Her favorite food is potato casserole and if she could go anywhere in the world it would be Hawaii.

"I'd lay on the beach and be lazy," Amy commented.

Amy's favorite store is GAP and her favorite class is yearbook. Her favorite actor is Chevy Chase because "he is hilarious" and her best friend is Jenny Fick.

Amy says she really doesn't have any hobbies, but she likes to watch TV and eat. Her favorite place to hang out is Jim's.

She hopes to attend East Central College in Union and major in physical education.
