

Senior Spotlight

Cliffty Wagner and Rachel McMullin

by Ashley Minzes,
TCN Student Reporter

Rachel McMullin and Cliffty Wagner have been chosen for this week's Senior Spotlight.

Rachel, 17, is the daughter of Wanda and Donald Breeding of Vienna. She is currently a member of Future Teachers of America and works at Dickneite Grocery Store in Freeburg.

Her favorite color is purple, her favorite food is pizza, and her favorite animal is the squirrel.

"They're just sooo cute," said Rachel.

Rachel likes to shop at Debs. Her favorite class is Multi Media and she likes the actor Michael J. Fox because "even though he has Parkinson's Disease, he still is a terrific actor."

She likes listening to Nelly and says her best friend is Ashley Honse because she can tell her anything.

Rachel's hobbies include singing and dancing. She likes to hang out in Freeburg and if she could go anywhere in the world it would be Florida.

"I've never been out of state and Florida looks really pretty," said Rachel.

After high school, Rachel plans to attend Linn Technical College and major in Business Management to be a computer assistant.

Rachel describes herself as an outspoken, friendly, hard-working girl who likes to party.

Cliffty Wagner, 18, of Vienna is the son of Roberta Juergens and Wayne Wagner. He is going out for varsity basketball this year. He attends construction class at Rolla Vo-Tech and works at Connie's Restaurant.

His favorite color is black and his favorite food is "meat and potatoes". He likes the spotted leopard because "they're like little kitty cats."

Cliffty's favorite store is the Harley Shop in Rolla because of all its cool Harley stuff.

His favorite class is Global Issues and his favorite actor is Lou Diamond Phillips because "he played a cool Indian in Young Guns II."

He likes to listen to Metallica and if he could go anywhere in the world it would be Pere Lachaise in Paris, France so he could see where Jim Morrison is buried.

Cliffty's best friend is Dennis Hutchison because he's known him forever and they've always been real close.

His hobbies include hunting, fishing and arrowhead hunting. He likes to hang out at his older brother, Wayne's house.

After high school, Cliffty plans to attend Linn Technical College and major in philosophy.

He describes himself as an outgoing, friendly, outspoken, athletic kinda guy.