

Senior Spotlight

by Ashley Minzes,
TCN Student Reporter

Tyler Schwartz and Erin Stratman have been chosen for this week's Senior Spotlight.

Tyler Schwartz, 17, is the son of Norb and Coleen Schwartz. He works for the Maries County Livestock Association and is a member of FFA. He serves as President of Student Council and plays varsity baseball and basketball and runs track.

His favorite color is yellow and his favorite food is fried wild turkey. His favorite class is Ag Power and his favorite animal is the white-tailed deer because "it's sneaky and illusive."

Tyler likes to listen to the band Alabama and hang out at Vienna Quik Stop.

His favorite actor is Morgan Freeman because "he is a very intelligent, good, intense actor." His hobbies include hunting, fishing, gigging, bow hunting and anything to do outside.

If he could go anywhere in the world, Tyler would go elk hunting somewhere because it sounds interesting and fun.

After high school, Tyler plans to attend college and get a degree in business. He plans to live in Maries County for the rest of his life.

When asked to describe himself, Tyler said, "I'm an outgoing, athletic, charming ladies man."

Erin Stratman, 17, is the daughter of Victor and Joan Stratman. She works at Vienna Quik Stop, is in FBLA and has been a statistician for the boys basketball team.

Her favorite color is purple and her favorite animal is the giant panda because "it's cute".

Her favorite class is Business Tech II and her favorite actor is Mel Gibson because "he is a good guy and has a lot of morals".

Erin likes to hang out at Vienna Quik Stop. Her hobbies include watching movies, hanging out with friends and playing cards.

If she could go anywhere in the world, it would be out of Missouri because she likes to travel and get away.

After high school, Erin plans to attend a four-year university and study computer aided drafting.

Erin describes herself as easy to get along with and quiet, but funny when she does speak.
