

Helping Afghanistan Children

by Crystal Wilson, TCN Student Reporter

National Honor Society members April Steinman and Holly Schwartze display a sign they helped make and distribute throughout the school. On October 11, exactly one month after the attacks on America, President Bush challenged every American child to raise $1 to help the children of Afghanistan. The Maries R-I NHS will be coordinating the local effort by hanging up posters and collecting money.