For the second year in a row, the Vienna Math Team won the Gasconade Valley Conference.

On March 11, the team traveled to Cuba. Each student took a 30-minute multiple choice test(s). Medals were awarded to the top three people in each event, but the fourth place person received a certificate.

Vienna had several medalists and place in all but three events.

Overall team results were: 1) Vienna-41 points, 2) Belle-25, 3) Steelville-23, 4) Cuba-10, 5) Bourbon and Viburnum (tie)-9 points each.

Individual event results for Vienna scorers were:

Calculus: Clayton Weidinger, 1st; Sam Barnhart, 3rd.

Metrics: Sam Barnhart, 1st; Clayton Weidinger, 2nd; Megan Duncan, 3rd.

Word Problems: Amanda Stratman, 2nd; Crystal Wilson, 3rd, Megan Duncan, 4th.

Brain Teasers: David Weidinger, 2nd.

Algebra II: Morgan Schiermeier, 1st; Heather Scott, 4th.

Geometry: Jesse Rollins, 1st.

Algebra: Josh Verschuering, 1st; Whitney Schoene, 2nd.

Computations: Ryan Meyer, 4th.

Consumer Math: Curt Rowden, 4th.

The team is coached by Mrs. Kleffner and Mrs. Starr.
