

Hannah Henderson

Henderson heading to State Speech competition

Twenty-five Missouri high schools had students competing Saturday, March 9 at the District Speech competition at Camdenton High School for the honor of going to State competition in April at the University of Missouri in Columbia.

Freshman Hannah Henderson will be representing Vienna when she competes with her storytelling selection "Piggie Pie".

Only the top speech students from each competing high school may compete at the district competition.

Other students who represented Vienna were: Kory Bingaman (Poetry and Original Oratory), David Hutchison (Humorous Interpretation, Radio and Extemporaneous Speaking), Tasha Sandbothe (Dramatic Interpretation), April Steinman and David Weidinger (Duet Acting) and Nathaniel Weber (Prose).