

Varsity, JV Eagles overwhelm Tuscumbia

by Crystal Wilson,
TCN Student Reporter

The varsity and JV boys' basketball teams traveled to Tuscumbia on Tuesday, February 19. The varsity boys handed them a 96-63 loss.

Justin Helton was Vienna's high scorer with 23 points, 18 rebounds, 4 assists, 1 block and 7 steals.

He was closely followed by Sam Barnhart and Sam Hagan who had 20 points each. Barnhart also had 5 rebounds, 7 assists and 2 steals while Hagan had 2 rebounds, 2 assists and 1 steal.

Other Vienna stats were: Tyler Willoughby, 9 points, 2 rebounds, 5 assists, 1 steal; John Rollins, 9 points, 1 rebound, 2 assists; TC James, 4 points, 7 rebounds, 3 assists; Matt Slone, 4 points, 2 rebounds, 2 assists;

Rocky Clark, 3 points; Nic Romare, 2 points, 3 rebounds, 2 assists; and Morgan Schiermeier, 2 points, 1 rebound.

The varsity boys are now 15-9 overall.

The JV boys also beat Tuscumbia by a score of 76-51.

Damon Farrow was Vienna's top scorer with 18 points.

Other Vienna scorers were: Brett Alexander 11, Curt Rowden 11, Morgan Schiermeier 7, Tim Weakly 7, Dusty Juergens 6, Rusty Moles 6, Tyler Helton 4, Adam James 4 and Tim Barnhart 2.

The JV boys are 11-6 overall.

Coach Kolzow had the following comments about the games: "Everybody got playing time in the games. We shot the ball well and were very good in transition."