

VHS Girls Go 6-3 At Team Camp

Last weekend, seven prospective members of this fall's VHS girls basketball team attended team camp at Licking High School. This year's camp featured the largest ever field of 18 teams. They included Poplar Bluff, Arcadia Valley, Lincoln, Duchesne, Osage, Melbourn (Arkansas), St. Genevieve Valle, El Dorado Springs and North Callaway in the pool of preliminary large schools.

On Friday, Vienna competed in their pool of primarily smaller schools including Licking, Houston, Dixon, Dexter, Iberia, Belle, South Iron, Fatima and Vienna.

Houston won the small school pool on Friday with a record of 4-0. Vienna finished second with a record of 3-1. The scores were: Vienna 35 Belle 32, Vienna 29 Fatima 24, Houston 36 Vienna

18, and Vienna 39 South Iron 27.

On Saturday teams competed against both pools in a modified double elimination tournament. The weary Eagle players again showed well, winning three out of five games to finish 6-3 overall and in the top eight teams in camp. Scores were North Callaway 50 Vienna 20, Vienna 37 Iberia 26, Vienna 44 Melbourne (AR) 32, Vienna 42 Licking 36, and Fatima 39 Vienna 37 (OT).

Players attending the camp from Vienna were Kelly Steinman, Jaime Hodson, Amanda Curtis, Courtney Schwartze, Amy Hollis, Tammy Shanks and Rachel Bullock.
