

Scholarships awarded to R-I graduates

by Crystal Wilson,
TCN Student Reporter

Scholarships were awarded to 20 graduating seniors at Maries R-I High School. Those receiving scholarships and the college they plan to attend are featured below.

Bobby (BJ) Asberry was the recipient of Judge John Clayton's scholarship. He plans to attend Lincoln University in Jefferson City.

Sam Barnhart received a Bright Flight, First Community National Bank scholarship and an athletic scholarship to Lindenwood University in St. Charles.

An athletic scholarship to East Central College in Union was awarded to Ellie Byrd. She also received the Maries County Bank employee scholarship and First Community National Bank scholarship.

Tanya Cahill was the recipient of the Tom Coffey scholarship and the Jeans scholarship. She plans to attend Linn State Technical College.

John Campbell was awarded a UMR scholarship, MFA & Peoples' Book scholarship and the David Schwartze Family scholarship. He plans to attend the University of Missouri-Rolla.

Brent Cater received the Air Force College Fund for the United States Air Force.

Shawn Curtis also received the Air Force College Fund for the United State Air Force.

Danielle Dudenhoeffler was awarded the Tom Coffey scholarship. She plans to attend

East Central College in Union.

Megan Duncan was awarded a Bright Flight, Board of Governor's scholarship from SMS and the Maries County Bank employee scholarship. She plans to attend Southwest Missouri State University in Springfield.

An athletic scholarship to Lincoln University in Jefferson City was awarded to Tommy Haller.

Justin Helton received an athletic scholarship to Missouri Valley College in Marshall. He also received the Central Methodist College Dean scholarship. He plans to attend Missouri Valley College.

Sarah Henderson was awarded the Shelter Insurance scholarship. She plans to attend the University of Missouri-Columbia.

Kelly Hollis received the Tom Coffey scholarship and the Jeans scholarship. She plans to attend Linn State Technical College.

Jennifer Juergens was awarded the David Schwartze Family scholarship, Tom Coffey scholarship, Maries County Bank 2-year scholarship and Jean scholarship. She plans to attend Linn State Technical College.

Andrew Reeves was the recipient of the Maries County Bank 4-year scholarship and the Jeans scholarship. He plans to attend Lincoln University in Jefferson City.

Continued on page 16

Scholarships awarded to graduating seniors

Continued from page 1

An athletic scholarship to Lincoln University in Jefferson City was awarded to Abe Rowden.

Clayton Weidinger was the recipient of the Alumni Endowment scholarship, Curators scholarship, Bright Flight, and the Missouri Society of Professional Engineers scholarship. He plans to attend the University of Missouri-Rolla.

Ashley Wheeler received the CMC Eagle scholarship, Legacy scholarship and United Methodist scholarship. She plans to attend Central Methodist College in Fayette.

Kacie Workman received the Merrill scholarship. She plans to attend Merrill University of Arts & Science in Jefferson City.

A University Scholar Award was awarded to John Wulff. He plans to attend Central Missouri State University in Warrensburg.

Other students have been accepted to colleges. They are Dustin Evans, Linn State Technical College; Casey Finn, Linn State Technical College; Ashley Helmig, Nursing School; Ashley Honse, University of New Hampshire in Durham, NH; Kalinda Martin, Education Direct; Cassidy Moles, Southwest Baptist University in Bolivar; Daniel Stratman, East Central College in Union; Gary Travers, Central Missouri State University in Warrensburg; and Darrell Wyss, Lincoln University in Jefferson City.