This week Shawn Curtis and Brent Cater are featured in the Senior Spotlight.

Shawn is the son of Allen and Jama Curtis. His favorite food is prime rib, color is red, animal is the dog, and class is Coach Kolzow's P.E. Jet Li is his favorite actor and "Fight Club" is his favorite movie.

Shawn enjoys playing the guitar, going to church, annoying people and having fun in general. He also likes working with his boss Tommy Pickering, going to parties, hanging out with friends, and driving around.

His best friend is Brent Cater.

Shawn says his brother, Collin, has been the biggest influence in his life because, "He's kept me out of trouble and taught me what not to do."

His favorite quote is "You wanna run em?" by his brother Collin.

After high school, Shawn plans to enlist in the Air Force for six years, then go to college and win the lottery.

Brent Cater is the son of Dave Cater and Linda Nunley. His favorite color is blue, food is Mandarin Garden, class is history, and animal is the dog.

"Fight Club" is his favorite movie and Christopher Walker is his favorite actor.

Brent enjoys spending his free time going to parties, drawing and having a good time.

If he could go anywhere in the world, it would be to Spain.

Brent says Shawn Curtis is his best friend and that they've been through a lot of stuff together.

After high school Brent plans to go in to active duty with the Air Force.
