

VHS Speech Team in first place in conference

The Vienna High School Speech Team traveled to Steelville for the first Gasconade Valley Conference meet of the season Saturday, November 19. Vienna finished in first place with 119 points, ahead of Cuba with 84 points and third place Steelville with 53 points.

Students who received first place medals were Laura Soldan (Dramatic Interpretation), Crystal Wagner and Anna Duncan (Duet Acting), and David Dumbach (Prose Reading and Radio Speaking).

Students who received second place medals are Cyndi Spooner (Dramatic Interpretation), Kenny Moore (Humorous Interpretation and Original Oratory), Sarah Thompson (Prose Reading and Storytelling). Crystal Wagner received a third place medal in Humorous Interpretation.

The team's next meet is January 19 in Viburnum. Pat Rapert and Pat Bresnahan judged the meet. The team is coached by Joanie Mullin and Katie Reenan.

Pictured above are Speech Team members: Cyndi Spooner (front left), Anna Duncan, Crystal Wagner, Laura Soldan, Katelyn Davis, Sarah Thompson (middle left), Taylor Van Scoy, Ethan Johnson, Brandon Hall, Kenny Moore (back left), Jon Gamache and David Dumbach.