

LEADERSHIP DAY - Six Vienna High School students attended Farm Bureau's Leadership Day in Jefferson City Thursday, March 30. Students participating were seniors Jessica Deardeuff, Amber Bock and Craig Weakly, and juniors Sam Hale, Tony Lanning and Katie Scott. The students went to the Capitol and to Farm Bureau to learn about leadership and other important life skills. Chris Brundick was the sponsor that provided transportation and supervised the trip.