

Government students at Maries R-I High School attended Government Day at the Maries County Courthouse Thursday, May 4. The students had the opportunity to visit all the county offices and participate in a Mock Jury dealing with a minor in possession.

Maries County Associate Circuit Judge John Clayton gives a student a dollar for answering a question correctly during Government Day last week. Judge Clayton tested students knowledge about Supreme Court Judges, Constitutional Amendments and county officials.