

Six members of the Vienna High School Band received All-District honors. They include Joseph Weidinger, Brandon Hall, David Dumbach, Cody Honse, Sabrina Pendleton and Katie Henderson. The group spent the day at Waynesville High School on Saturday, November 5, working with clinicians Rob Nichols of Columbia and Dr. John Lynch of Kansas University. They, along with other students from the district, performed a concert that evening in the high school auditorium. Three students placed high enough to qualify for All-State Band auditions, which will be held December 3 at Hickman High School in Columbia. Those students are Joseph Weidinger, David Dumbach and Katie Henderson.

The Vienna Marching Band finished their marching season on Saturday, October 29 with a second place finish in Class 2A at Missouri State University's Homecoming parade. This year's highlights also include a second place finish at the Sullivan Marching Festival with the drum line receiving the outstanding percussion award for Class 2A. If you have not had a chance to see the marching band in action, they will perform their parade routing at the annual Christmas concert on Monday, December 12 at 7:00 pm in Allen Gymnasium. Also featured that evening will be the Choir and Concert Bands.
