

Eagles continue to play consistent

The Vienna High School fall baseball team continues to play consistent baseball.

On Monday, Sept. 19 the Eagles squared off with the Laquey Hornets. The Hornets proved to be no match for the Eagles as Vienna rolled on to win 17-0 in five innings.

The Eagles took on rival St. Elizabeth on Tuesday, Sept. 20. Behind a pitching performance by Curt Byrd the Eagles rallied to a 9-0 win.

Byrd threw a complete game, striking out 9 and allowing no runs.

John Bauer had a hit and 2 runs scored; Byrd had 2 hits; Wayne Fick, 1 hit, run scored; Tyler Jones, 3 hits, run scored; Jesse Jones, 1 hit; Richard Spacek, run scored; Nathan Swyers, 3 hits; and Shane Steinman, 2 hits.

Thursday's action against Stoutland proved to be an offensive explosion by both teams. The game ended in a 16-16 tie and will not be finished, due to Stoutland's schedule.
