

NHS raising money for Cystic Fibrosis Foundation

by Amber Bock,
TCN Student Reporter

The Vienna High School National Honor Society chapter helped raise money for the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.

Members sold hearts for a dollar. Then they put the person's name on the heart. The hearts were hung in the school to help raise awareness.

All money raised will go to the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.