

Senior Spotlight

Amanda Helton and Matt Helton

by Amber Bock,
TCN Student Reporter

Seniors Amanda Helton and Matt Helton are being featured in this week's Senior Spotlight.

Amanda Helton is the daughter of Gene and Dianne Helton. She has two sisters, Lindsay, who is 19 years old and a sophomore at Lincoln University, and Audrey, who is 12 years old and a 7th grade student in Vienna. She also has one brother, Adam, who is 12 years old and a 7th grade student. Amanda lives in Vienna.

The most important things that she has learned in high school are that you should be yourself and that life is too short to take things for granted.

Throughout high school, Amanda has been an active member in the following: basketball, softball, track, FBLA, FCCLA, National Honor Society, Student Council, Math Team and SADD.

Her most memorable moment in high school was winning the district basketball championship last year.

The biggest influence in her life has been her parents because they never let her give up and they have always been there for her.

Amanda's closest friends are: Matt Helton, Jessica Deardeuff, Erica Stratman, Amber Asher, Amanda Weed, Amber Bock and Hannah Schiermeier.

Her hobbies are playing sports, shopping, hunting, fishing and hanging out with friends.

Amanda has a pet dog named Copper and two cats named Snickers and Dotty.

Some of Amanda's favorite things are: favorite class is Yearbook; favorite animal is the tiger; favorite actress is Julia Roberts; favorite song is "Anything But Mine" by Kenny Chesney; favorite band is Rascal Flatts; favorite TV show is "Rock Star: INXS"; favorite movie is "Big Daddy"; favorite color is pink; and her favorite food is her mom's enchiladas.

After high school, Amanda plans to attend college and major in Nursing or Speech Therapy.

Senior Matt Helton is the son of Rusty and Michelle Wood and Paul Helton. He has two sisters, Deseray Helton, who is 14 and a freshman at Vienna High School, and Cheyenne Wood, who is a third grade student in Vienna. He lives outside of Vienna.

The biggest influence on his life has been his parents because they have always told him to work hard and to be police.

Matt's closest friends are: Amanda Helton, Matt Havens, Chace Feeler, Jessica Deardeuff and Erica Stratman.

Throughout high school he has been involved in FBLA, basketball, cross country, track and baseball.

His favorite class is P.E.

The most important thing that Matt has learned in high school is to treat others with respect.

His most memorable moment from high school was winning the district basketball championship.

In Matt's free time he enjoys playing basketball, hunting and hanging out with his girlfriend.

His hobbies are playing basketball, hunting, working on trucks and hanging out with friends.

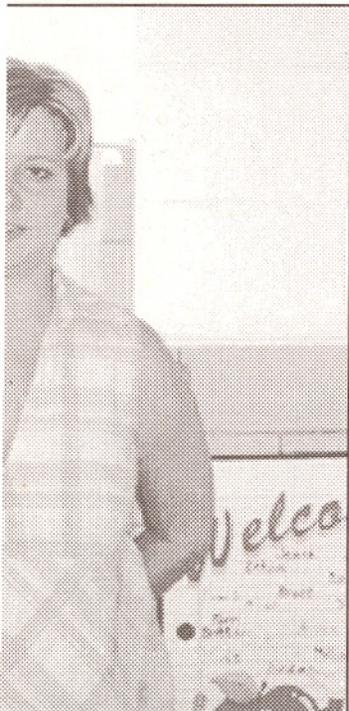

For pets, Matt has two dogs, Princess and Baby; three cats, Angel, Squirmy and Aspen; and one rabbit, Bugs.

Some of Matt's favorite things are: favorite color is red; favorite food is beans and corn bread with fried taters; favorite movie is "Varsity Blues"; favorite TV show is "American Hot Rod"; favorite singer is Kenny Chesney; favorite song is "Back Where I Come From" by Kenny Chesney; favorite actor is Sylvester Stallone; favorite actress is Jessica Simpson in "The Dukes of Hazzard"; and his favorite animal is the dog.

After high school, Matt plans to attend college and major in Engineering (Surveying).

There will be a
Vienna Athletic Booster Club meeting on Wednesday, Oct
5 at 6:00 pm

Sports Continued on page 7

White