This week the seniors that are being featured are Sarah Howard and Audrey Murphy.

Sarah Elizabeth Howard is the daughter of Richard and Gail Howard. She has one sister, Malinda, who is a sophomore at Lincoln University. Sarah lives in Vienna.

She works at Honse's Café as a waitress. For pets she has one dog named Molly and two cats named Tippy and Speedy. In her free time she enjoys fishing, walking in the woods, going to the Gasconade River, swimming and riding her four-wheeler.

Sarah's closest friends are April Elrod, Amanda and Sabrina Pendleton, Nikki Houser, Sam Hale and Malinda Howard.

The biggest influence in her life has been her parents because they still love her even though sometimes she doesn't deserve it.

Throughout high school she has been or is currently involved in the following activities: FCCLA, FTA, FBLA and yearbook.

Sarah's most memorable moment from high school is when she, Sabrina, and Nick Willoughby put rat food in Nichole Licklyder's purse during Biology II.

Her favorite class is Biology II with Mr. Snodgrass.

The most important lesson that Sarah has learned throughout high school is that you shouldn't care what people think or say about you because it really doesn't matter in the end.

After graduation Sarah plans to attend RTC/RTI for graphic design.

Her favorite quote is "Things that come easy, can go easy too."

Some of her other favorite things are: favorite color is pink, food is steak, movie is "Dazed and Confused", TV shows are "That 70's Show" and "American Chopper", bands are Pantera and
