This week the seniors that are being featured are Emily Page and Sabrina Pendleton.

Emily Sara Page is the daughter of Carl and Mary Jean Page. She has one sister, Maggie, who is 15 years old and a freshman at Vienna High School. Emily lives in Vienna.

Some of her favorite things are: favorite color is green, food is cantaloupe, movie is "Animal House", TV shows are "Family Guy" and "The Colbert Report", band is Nine Inch Nails, song is "Clocks" by Coldplay, actor is Tom Hanks, actress is Charlize Theron, and favorite animal is the dolphin.

Emily's favorite quote is "Tough times don't last, tough people do."

She has one dog named Ocho and two cats named Mopsy and Elvis. Her hobbies are playing sports and camping. In her free time, she enjoys watching movies, TV, listening to music, playing basketball and just about anything that involves being outside.

Her favorite class is Mrs. Reenan's English IV class. The most important thing she has learned throughout high school is that when it comes to friends, quality is more important than quantity.

She has been or is currently involved in the following organizations: softball, basketball, track, SADD, FBLA, FCCLA, NHS and Student Council.

Emily's most memorable moment from high school was winning districts in basketball.

After graduation she will be attending the University of Missouri-Rolla and major in biological sciences.

Emily's closest friends are Katie Henderson and Amanda Helton.

The biggest influence in her life besides her parents has been Mr. Byrd. He has taught her to believe in herself, always give her best effort and never give up, both on and off the basketball court.

Senior Sabrina Marie Pendleton is the daughter of Mike and Ronda Pendleton. She has one sister, Amanda, who is 16 years old and a sophomore and one brother, Colt, who is 13 years old and in the seventh grade. Sabrina lives in Vienna.

She has been a member of band and FTA throughout high school.

Sabrina said she doesn't have any specific memory from high school, but it went by too fast to pay attention to little things.

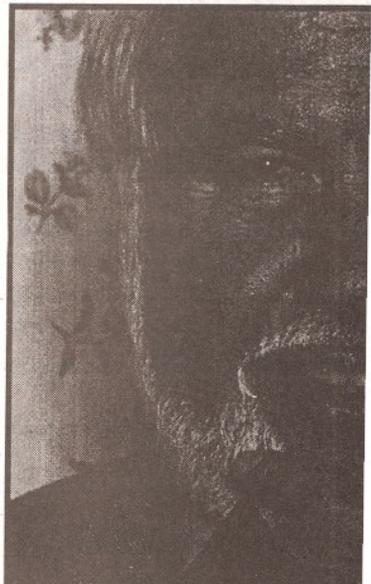

Her favorite class is cadet teaching seventh hour with the sixth grade band.

The most important thing she has learned throughout high school is that you have to enjoy your life because it goes by fast and there isn't time to waste complaining about it.

After graduation Sabrina will be attending Missouri State University and majoring in music education.

Sabrina's closest friends are Sarah French, Tiffany Juergens, Cody Honse, Heather Ware, Darren Shanks, Nate Cahill, Sam

Helton, Hayley Huffman, Liz French, Alison Rockhold, Katie Henderson, Ethan Shanks, Sarah Howard and
