

Senior Spotlight

by Amber Bock,
TCN Student Reporter

This week the two seniors that are being featured are Liz Thornton and Amber Asher.

Elizabeth Faye Thornton is the daughter of Ron and Waunda Thornton. She has one brother, Brandon 26 and one sister, Natalie 21. Liz lives outside of Vienna.

Her closest friends are Amber Asher, Laurel Kingery, Jessica Honse, Sarah French, Tiffany Juergens and Tabitha Schulte.

Liz's hobbies are riding four-wheelers, riding horses, going to the river, shopping, and hanging out with friends.

She works at the Eagles Club as a waitress and at Bristol Manor cleaning for pets. She has four dogs: Harry, Buster, Boxer and Charlie.

Liz's favorite class is advanced biology. The most important thing that she has learned in high school is that you should do all you can and the best you can because it goes by fast.

Throughout high school she has been involved in the following organizations: FBLA, FCCLA, Student Council, softball, track, float committee, drama and theater.

After graduation, Liz would like to major in law enforcement or become an RN.

Her favorite quote is, "What doesn't kill you only makes you stronger."
